YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS

Memorial Bridge across the Potomac—famous link between your school and the Nation's Capital.

MOUNT VERNON

These historic shrines were the homes of Virginia's great leaders.

—George Washington and Robert E. Lee, for whom our school is named.

LEE MANSION

The heart of nearby Clarendon—the community you know so well.

In the Early Morning . . .

Washington-Lee is an empty lifeless building. After the sun rises, some of you people rub the sleep out of your eyes and run up the steps for the Tri-Hi-Y meeting, the Glee Club practice, the crack squad drill or the make-up test.

When the first bell rings at 9:20, more students push inside and battle to their lockers. Dear old W-L is very much awakened by you and your constant chatter.

You, your ticket to the football game, your snack of pretzels for fourth period, your slang, your gripes, your bobby sox—you bring life inside. A school is only as great as the students. You have made Washington-Lee the fine happy place that it continues to be day after day and year after year.

ADMINISTRATION

Principal
CLAUDE M. RICHMOND

Dear Friends of the Class of '49:

Graduation with its glamour and excitement has long been your objective. As you pass this goal, you will be looking immediately forward to other achievements that will lead to your success. Heretofore your parents, your teachers and your other friends have helped but now, more than ever, it is up to YOU.

The determination to have a richer, fuller life must come from within and must be developed through your own efforts. There are many wonderful and beautiful things in store for you: friendships, opportunities to serve, the joys of making a home, and an appreciation of the beauties of nature and works of art. From these, your life should gain a richer color and a finer quality. You may be sure that their attainment will be worthy of your most earnest efforts.

Those of us who have had the privilege of working with you are optimistic about your future. You live in the best country in the world and are challenged by boundless opportunities. May you take advantage of these opportunities and live a full and happy life.

Affectionately,

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

SUPERINTENDENT FLETCHER KEMP has guided and directed the growth and development of Arlington's public school system for more than three decades.

SCHOOL BOARD

This School Board was elected by the people, rather than being appointed, for the first time in the history of Arlington. Washington-Lee students and faculty grant the Board members a vote of thanks for the new lights on the football field and for the many fine improvements made in our school.

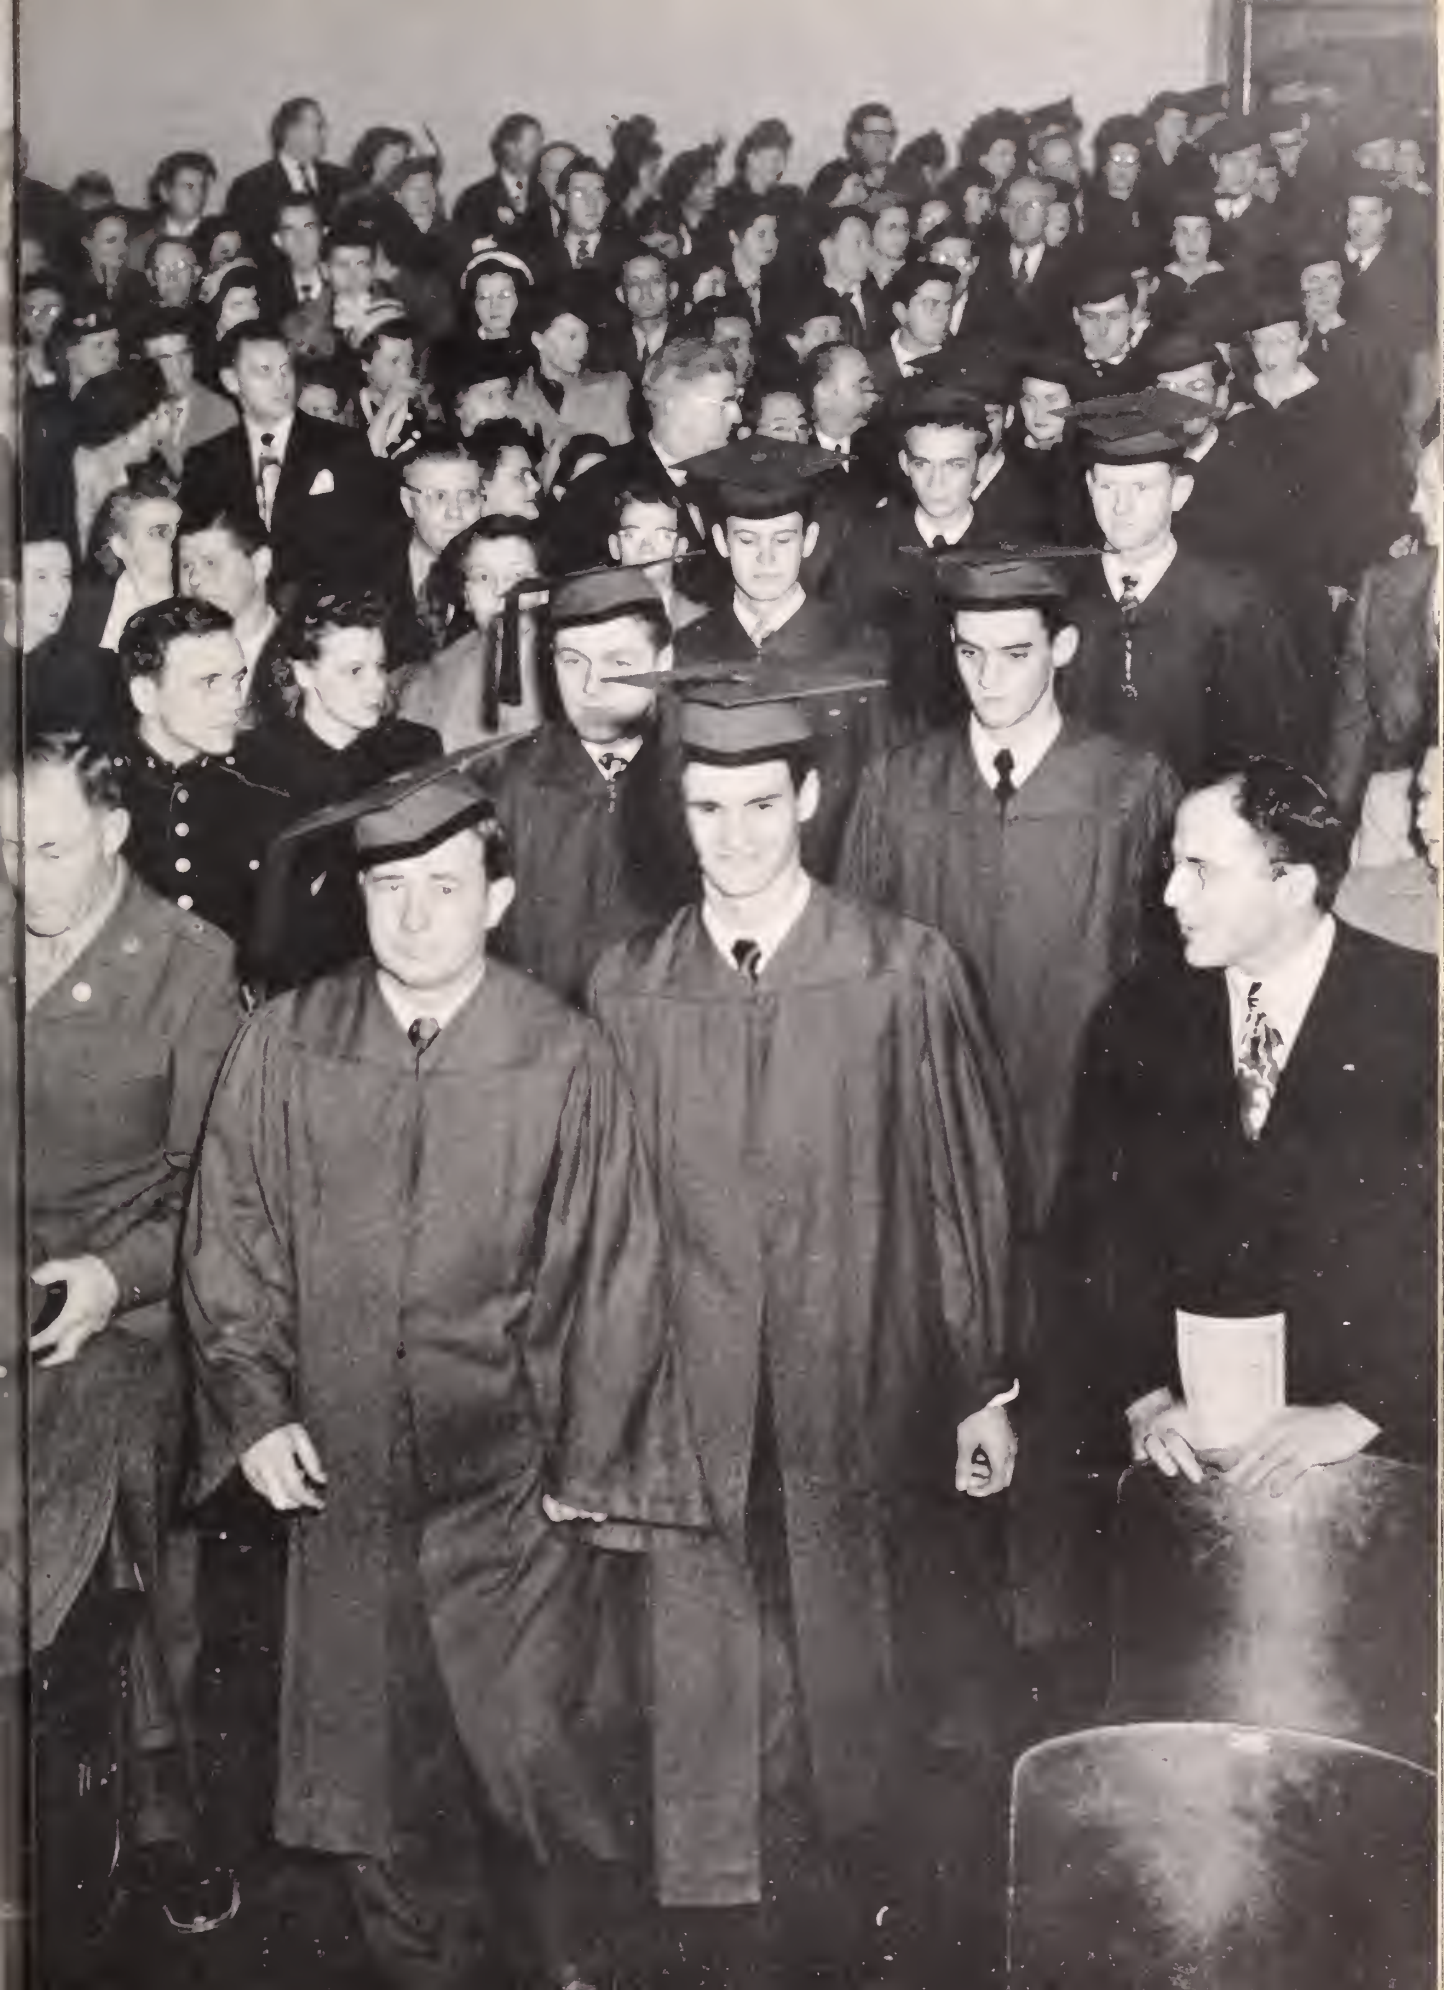

First row: Dr. Warren Tuthill, Mrs. Edmund Campbell, Dr. Barnard Joy. Second row: Mr. Colin MacPherson, Mr. Glenn O. Stahl.

COUNCIL

The officers of the Student Government are elected by their classmates to "promote the general welfare of our school and secure the cooperation of all the students in any matter which concerns them as a whole." This association builds school spirit, gives Washington-Lee traditions a boost and improves the relationship between the students and the faculty.

Under the conscientious leadership of Art Wiley, the Student Government published the W-L Handbook, made signs to direct traffic in the halls, sold football programs, led the clean-up campaign and sponsored the Fall Ball, the Alumni Dance and the Spinsters' Ball.

AND GRAY

The BLUE AND GRAY staff learned the hard way—by meeting the printer's deadline—that a lot of time and effort must go into the making of a yearbook.

I want to thank everyone who helped—those in the editorial, advertising and circulation departments, and the many students who took pictures, prepared copy, typed and did other necessary jobs. Much credit, too, must go to Mrs. Moore and Miss Priddy who gave the staff skilled direction and a helping hand over many rough spots.

MISS PRIDDY

Crossed Sabres, the school newspaper, is an excellent stepping stone for the student interested in a journalistic career. Every other week there is excitement in the air because Crossed Sabres is being distributed. For approximately 16 years, students have been scanning the gossip column, news items and other features to read about themselves and their friends.

Besides publishing the paper, the Crossed Sabres staff helps promote school spirit by issuing a special BEAT G. W. supplement in connection with the W-L-G. W. football game and by sponsoring the annual Turkey Hop.

ELOS

Elos is the society of literary endeavor. The purpose of this group is to stimulate literary interest and activity. Elos is noted for its presentation of annual awards to the best actress and actor appearing on the Washington-Lee stage in a school play, to the outstanding girl and boy athletes who have high scholarship and good citizenship, and to the winner of the Elos short story contest. For the first time this year an award was given to the writer of the best article in the newspaper.

Miss Caufield (sponsor), Mollie Brown, Betty Ann Rhodes, Betty Munson and Barbara Bennett initiate new members into the Beta Tri-Hi-Y.

The purpose of Tri-Hi-Y is "to create, maintain and extend throughout the home, school and community high standards of Christian character." Tri stands for this threefold purpose. Hi indicates that the group is made up of high school girls, and Y shows the affiliation with the Y.M.C.A.

Alpha Tri-Hi-Y members have enjoyed many social gatherings and have completed many worth-while projects. This year Alpha Tri-Hi-Y gave food to a needy family, sent a CARE package to Europe, decorated a Christmas tree in the cafeteria, and presented their Annual Spring Fashion Show.

BETA TRI-HI-Y

Second Row: Carol Guinther, Joyce Springer (Secretary), Rita Downs, Virginia Day, Ruth Anne Parker, Zelda Wildman (Treasurer), Joan Becker, Donna Breeding, Mary Chaffee.
Third Row: Judy Coville, Margel Settle, Nancy Carlisle (Vice-President), Nancy Fling, Arlene Yost, Shirley Trivett, Barbara Bankson, Sara Lee Street, Phyllis Woodyard. Mrs. Ballard is the sponsor of this group.

Seeing the need for another girls' Christian group at Washington-Lee, the Alpha Tri-Hi-Y helped organize and launch the Beta Tri-Hi-Y. Although this group is new this year the members are already working to carry out the Tri-Hi-Y purpose and to express in their lives its slogan, "Pure thoughts, pure words and pure actions."

Janet Wiggins, first President of the Beta Tri-Hi-Y, and her first catch.

ALPHA HI-Y

George Gerber and Bill Herring decorate for the Annual Hi-Y-Tri-Hi-Y Dance.

The Alpha Hi-Y members are bound together with a spirit of fellowship based on the ideals of "clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship, and clean living."

This year, under the direction of Mr. Dixon, Alpha Hi-Y co-sponsored the Annual Hi-Y-Tri-Hi-Y Dance, took active part in the Area Council meetings and participated in the Area Basketball League.

The members served the school by cleaning the school trophies, checking the late school buses, and working hard on the annual clean-up campaign.

The Beta Hi-Y, although it was only formed last year, has already taken its place among the clubs of the school.

The members of the Beta chapter worked with the members of the Alpha chapter of Hi-Y on many projects. Both Hi-Y's helped Alpha Tri-Hi-Y sponsor the annual Hi-Y-Tri-Hi-Y Dance, both were active in Area Council meetings, and both participated in the Area Basketball League.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Ballard, the Beta Hi-Y members have helped, "create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school and community, high standards of Christian character."

Foster Bass and Tommy Christie are going places with the Beta Hi-Y chapter.

Mr. Christie gave Bob Myers a Bible when Bob left for college.

The Washington-Lee Bible Club was organized by Christian youth under the sponsorship of Mr. Christie in January, 1948. It has grown tremendously because the club has an open invitation to all W-L students who wish to study the Bible and to enjoy fellowship.

This year the Bible Club presented an assembly, gave programs at the Gospel Mission and for the Arlington Youth for Christ movement, participated in radio Bible quizzes and still had time to enjoy picnics, hikes and parties.

The precision drilling of the Washington-Lee Cadet Corps makes Washington-Lee a leading school in the military field. Captain Fowler is Professor of Military Science and Tactics.

While training, each cadet learns to obey, to think clearly, to cooperate and to accept responsibility.

The cadets become close friends while working together every day at fifth period.

Every year, each cadet anxiously awaits the trip to the Apple Blossom Parade in Winchester, Va., the competitive drills with George Washington High School, the Regimental Ball and the other events that make his life, as a cadet, an exciting one.

Playing their first season under the new lights, this year's Little Generals, after losing two of their first three games, bounced back to finish the season with seven wins and three losses.

Mike Lloyd, center and co-captain of this year's team, was chosen All-Metropolitan as well as captain of the All-Suburban team. Bill Brazil, Lester Cockerille, and Bruce Hillenbrand made the second-string area team. Other Washington-Lee players to be chosen on various All-Star teams were Eddie Fowler, Dick Christian, Art Wiley, Biff Johnson, and Jack Gilfillan.

The Generals marked up a total of 226 points while their opponents scored 99. They were undefeated in home games.

As usual, Washington-Lee lived up to its reputation as the home of great football teams.

The Junior Class presented "A Case of Springtime," a three-act comedy, which proved to be hilarious. All the actors smiled broadly while the audience applauded noisily after the show. The Junior Class kept right in step with the Seniors.

The Senior Class scored another hit as this year's Senior Play, "We Shook the Family Tree" was a large success. Weeks later students were still chuckling over parts like Wally Dickson flying across the stage in his shorts trying to tackle Leonard Hilder.
